

EDNA WALLACE IN A STATE OF COLLAPSE

Popular Little Actress is Now Under the Care of Trained Nurses

FUNERAL OF HER MOTHER FIXED FOR THURSDAY

SAN LEANDRO, June 25.—Edna Wallace, the distinguished comedienne, lies in a state of physical collapse and unconsciousness in an apartment of the Dunsmuir mansion on the Southern farm, near this place, while the pall of death rests over the remains of her mother, the late Mrs. Alex Dunsmuir, which lie in an adjoining chamber. A number of trained nurses are at the bedside of the little actress, and skilled physicians are in attendance. Nurses and physicians say that the prostration may result fatally if the patient is not given the greatest care.

The unfortunate condition of the sprightly comedienne has been superinduced by the sight of her dead mother, who had passed away while the daughter was away from home. The receipt of the news of Mrs. Dunsmuir's illness by Miss Wallace caused the young lady to cancel her professional engagement and to hasten home, but the mother passed away before the homeward journey was half-traversed.

The bad news, however, reached the traveler, and so wrought upon her feelings that when she arrived and beheld the speechless form of her mother, she broke into tears. Tears were followed by hysteria, and then succumbing to the gross period of redemption, had elapsed. His client, he said, intended to redeem the property.

Attorney Nusbaumer representing the defendants, denied the contention presented and stated further that if Bruschke did "redeem" the property within a year, it would be much more to his advantage to have the line operated with electricity than as it has been operated. He said he was the is-the old role. He has, however, an option to buy from Woodward for the purchase of the 50 shares at the average price under the creditors' sale. This option was exercised on July 8. There are thus 500 shares of capital stock. Five shares are owned by the directors.

Although his action to enjoin the owners from tearing up the tracks failed, Bruschoke says he has not finished with the matter and that he will take further steps to secure the property. He is one of the backers of the new furniture manufacturing company that has been recently established at West Berkeley.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES MUST WAIT AWHILE. FOR THE CITY.

Cannot Get Any Money From the Council During This Fiscal Year.

PETITION PRESENTED AT LAST NIGHT'S SESSION.

Perhaps through the over-zealousness of the Board of Free Library Trustees in its efforts to force the City Council to provide $10,000 for the equipment of the new Carnegie Library building, this very matter has gone a-glimmering into the next fiscal year.

Time and again the Trustees have appeared before the Council asking that provision be made immediately to equip the building, claiming that it will require at least $20,000.

At the adjourned session of the Council, last night, the following communication was read:

"To the Honorable, the City Council of Oakland—Gentlemen: We, the undersigned, beg to represent to your honorable body:

"First—That Andrew Carnegie, Esq., gave to Oakland $50,000 on the condition that a site should be provided and not less than $4,000 a year be spent to maintain a library in the building to be built with his money.

"Second—That the citizens of Oakland subscribed various amounts to secure the required site.

"Third—That the city of Oakland, by its accredited authorities, accepted the money of Mr. Carnegie and the site provided by our predecessors and agreed to maintain a library as required.

"Fourth—That the building was ready for occupancy as soon as a sufficient equipment and furniture are supplied. The sum needed for this is $20,000, as figured by experts appointed by your predecessors, namely Messrs. Bliss and Faville, architects of the building. Of this sum, $10,000 at least is needed the first year.

"Fifth—That the Library Trustees have asked your honorable body to assure them that $10,000 would be granted for this purpose in the coming appropriation of city funds, and that your Committee on Auditing and Finance voted unanimously to report favorably a resolution promising the Trustees such appropriation. The stated purpose of such resolution was that the Trustees might now enter into contracts to be completed soon after the beginning of the next fiscal year.

"Sixth—That we, taxpayers, subscribers to the fund and citizens interested in the good name of the city, most earnestly request that you take the quickest possible method to make available the Carnegie gift. We know of no other way where an expenditure so small will result in such certain and large usefulness to the city, nor where the sacred faith of the city and of all its political parties is more solemnly pledged.

"We therefore call upon your honorable body to grant the Trustees the authority necessary to equip and move into the Carnegie building at the earliest possible moment, and to save the city of Oakland the leaving disgraced of receiving so much in the way of donation from a comparatively stranger without at least keeping faith with him in doing quickly and liberally the little that is left to the city to do.

"(Signed) Victor H. Metcalf, J. G. Lukens, George C. Perkins, John P. Irish, W. L. Chickering, Tait & Penney, R. M. Fitzgerald, Frank L. Adams, Francis Cutting, W. W. Foote.

"The communication was promptly referred to the Committee of the Whole, and when the Council met in the evening, met as such, the matter was taken up.

"I believe each of the Councilmen have expressed themselves in favor of properly equipping the new library," said Mr. Schaffer, "but I have no doubt that the Library Trustees were instrumental in getting up this petition. Now, I move this whole matter of furnishing the new library building go over to the next fiscal year. They know as well as we do that we cannot make an appropriation of $10,000 out of this year's funds."

"The motion was promptly seconded and carried.

"During a subsequent discussion on the bond proposition, Councilman Wixson referred to the matter again. He favored submitting in the bond proposition, one for the equipment of the new building. He favored, he said, completing what the Library Trustees did not complete—the library building. He charged that the Trustees went beyond their means in the cost of the building.

COUNCILMEN TALK OF BONDS FOR THE CITY.

Many Propositions Were Advanced at the Meeting Last Evening.

SUGGESTIONS MADE BY THE CITY FATHERS.

The Committee of the Whole of the City Council last night reviewed briefly the bond propositions and each of the Councilmen present was called upon and did express his choice in the matter of just what propositions should be submitted to the vote of the people. And moreover they were not at any great variance.

Councilman Wallace was chosen to preside. Mr. Ruch opened the talk by telling what he thought the people would most likely favor in the way of needed public improvements.

"RUCH—I believe first, in a new City Hall; second, the improvement of the Twelfth street dam; more school house sites, and, lastly, a certain amount of money for West Oakland Park.

"FITZGERALD—What I believe is mostly needed is, first, proper equipment of the new Library building; next the reconstruction of the Twelfth street dam; a new City Hall, and a sum for West Oakland Park.

"Courtney City Hall first, last and all the time. Second, the Twelfth street dam and a park between Eighth and Twelfth streets; the purchase of Adams Point, if it be possible, and the equipment of the new Library building.

"BOYER—Include all of Courtney's propositions and the improvement of Telegraph and San Pablo avenue besides. This latter is essential by all means.

"BON—City Hall, Twelfth street dam; improvement of San Pablo and Telegraph avenues. I mention this because in a short while there will be a tunnel connecting this county with Contra Costa county and there will then be a great deal of traffic to Oakland, which could not come with the roads in their present condition.

"BISHOP—I can assure the Council, if too many propositions get into the bond issue, you won't get any. I hope you will confine it to two propositions. There's another year coming, when we can go ahead with something further. To our successors we can leave what remains. Now, I favor first the improvement of the Twelfth street dam and boulevard. That would be the most necessary and attractive improvement. It will draw more people to Oakland every day than anything else. Secondly, we need a new City Hall. I wouldn't include more this year.

"WIXSON—First a new City Hall that would be a credit to the wealth and intelligence of this city. Next, the completion of what the Library Trustees did not complete—the building. The Library Trustees, with all their boasting, have not done what they undertook; that is, to complete the library within the $50,000 limit. They lack $20,000 of keeping within the limit. Our faith has not been broken with Mr. Carnegie. We agreed to maintain the library and will do so. The Library Trustees used bad judgment and built a larger building than the Carnegie gift permits. Of course, the building is a credit, but the lot is not. Now, if it takes $30,000 to complete it, let's have it and have it done.

"WIXSON HAS A SCHEME.

"As to West Oakland Park," continued Mr. Wixson, "I have a plan that I believe is more economical. We can have available by levying a 15-cent special tax for the Park and Boulevard Fund about $65,000. We can then take out of that $5,000 for West Oakland Park, $25,000 for Twelfth street dam and $20,000 for continuation of the boulevard. That can all be done this year.

"Next year we can have $60,000 on foot by a large manufacturing company to put up a plant if we give them a bonus of $50,000, and they'll agree to expend a certain sum for labor here every week. If we can establish manufacturing interests, we could do nothing greater to improve our city.

"Second, of course, I favor a new City Hall," continued Mr. Schaffer, "but even that is more of a luxury than a public necessity. Third, bituminous crosswalks. As to West Oakland Park, Mr. Wixson's theory is a good one. But we ought to settle upon the different items and submit them as soon as possible.

"First, I think a new City Hall is a matter of very general interest," said Chairman Wallace. "Next, the improvement of Twelfth street dam, and the park adjacent. We can't do better than spending $20,000 or $50,000 there. I would also favor submitting to the vote of the people a proposition of $2,000,000 for manufacturing water plant in the artesian belt."

"The remainder of the session was occupied with a discussion of water and its sources of supply.

"The people who make it so manifest to you that we can put in a plant," said Mr. Schaffer, "are numerous, but it would be well to ask them, from whence they could get an adequate supply.

"If you will go to Sunol and see what the Spring Valley Water Company has been doing there to get water, the expense of concrete ditches, the improvement of every little ravine, you might hold some different view. They have the best experts in the United States, and they wouldn't spend $1,600,000 to go so far to catch up every little bit of water when they can, if they could get an adequate supply nearer home. In reality, we don't know the value of water rights. No one is more in favor of municipal ownership than I am; but where are you going to get it? There have been engineers who have been asked that question and all seem to be in the dark. You can't get it out of the holes at Roberts', down there. I believe it would be well for us to go and see what the Spring Valley has been doing at Sunol the past four years."

Mr. Bishop referred to the unsuccessful effort of the previous Council to locate a water supply.

Mr. Boyer said he had seen what the Spring Valley Company had been doing, and how W. J. Dingee had been boring in the Livermore mountains for water which hasn't been found yet. "We'll have to go to Lake Tahoe," concluded Boyer.

Courtney also felt that the Council ought to locate a supply before submitting it to the people.

Wixson said he believed Oakland would have to look to San Pablo or Pineda Creek or further for a water supply. He did not favor inducing Oakland to spend several millions without getting something to show for it.

Mr. Schaffer concluded the discussion of the evening by recalling the fact that the previous Council had expended $5,000 in testing the Roberts' wells and still there was nothing to show for it. He believed that in a few years the water question will solve itself, just as did the power question.

On motion the committee adjourned.

OAKLAND AND THE SANTA FE.

Switch at San Pablo Enables Yellow Cars to Be Run Into This City.

Near San Pablo, in Contra Costa county, a connecting spur track has been laid between the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, the intervening distance being about one hundred yards. By means of this track, cars of one line may be transferred to the other. Regarding this improvement and the possibilities which may result from it, the Contra Costa Gazette of Martinez says:

"Some distance below the town of San Pablo the Santa Fe right of way to Richmond passes the Southern Pacific by an overhead crossing and at other points the two tracks approach each other but not at a convenient grade. The point selected for the connecting tracks is the most accessible one from the present Santa Fe terminal at Point Richmond. It is reported that the Santa Fe will at an early date arrange to pick up at this transfer point, coach which will convey passengers from Oakland pier and that a coach from incoming trains will be dropped at this point and attached to a Southern Pacific train going to the Oakland mole. This would give the Santa Fe a more direct passenger route to San Francisco.

"It would also afford a direct route for the transfer of Santa Fe freight cars into Oakland until the company has a line of its own.

"It is also stated that the transfer track will be a convenience to the S. F. as Point Richmond is likely to become a great grain port with extensive elevators for the handling of grain in bulk. With this convenience grain may be consigned by the Southern Pacific to Point Richmond.

"The Southern Pacific is evidently making arrangements for large traffic along the bay shore, for the material is on hand for culverts and for additional third track and siding at points this side San Pablo station.

"The development of new industries along the bay shore is making constantly increasing demands for rapid handling of freight.

"While the arrangement for a transfer point at San Pablo may serve as a temporary expedient, it is not believed that it will meet the purpose of a permanent terminal for the Santa Fe on this side of the bay."

Launching of Wawona.

It is believed by the Booles that they will finally be able to launch the Wawona next week and, if so, it will be done with appropriate ceremonies. The Wawona has been ready for launching, with the exception of her iron work, for some time, but the iron workers' strike make it impossible to complete her. It is now expected that the trouble may be settled in time to launch the vessel toward the latter part of next week.

Laid the Keel.

The keel of the new four-masted barkentine, companion to the Lahaina has been laid and the workmen are now engaged in putting up her frame. She is being built for Hind, Rolph & Conway of San Francisco, owners of the Lahaina, and will be 25 feet long over all, two feet longer than the latter vessel.

A New Lighter.

At the other shipyards along the harbor no new work has been commenced. At Hay & Wright's, the workmen are engaged on the new lighter, or barge, which the owners intend to charter for carrying coal about the bay. Work is also progressing rapidly on the new companion schooner to the Cona.

At Dickey's Yard.

At Dickey's the men are engaged on the new steamer which is being built for the Pacific Coast Steamship Company. The new steamer is intended for the Alaskan and Coast trade.

AN OBT-TOLD ROMANCE.

Again we are told that a "Monte Carlo" is to be established and that the law is to be defied with impunity in a no-man's land on the coast of California. These perennial stories are usually told with a good deal of circumstantiality about this season of the year, and commonly have their basis in a fanciful interview with some friend of an ex-gambler. The story is seized upon with avidity and sensationalized by a yellow journal here or in the East, goes the rounds of the press, and after a few weeks is never heard of again.

This time the tale runs that the little island of Anacapa has been acquired by a syndicate of which one George L'Abbe, who is described in regular style as "the well-known gambler," is the head. Anacapa is to be made a resort of the sporting element of the world, says the report, and beside it Baden-Baden, Monte Carlo and Macao will be but as memories. And to end all doubt about it we are told that the authority for the tale is Charles E. Bishop, an "associate" of the aforesaid L'Abbe—not a "friend" of the gambler, but an "associate" this time, be it noted.

We heard all this, in slightly different guise, about Tia Juana, just over the line in Mexico, half an hour's ride from San Diego, while it seems only a few months ago that we were informed that such a syndicate had secured control of an island in the Atlantic, half way between Europe and America, that was to be used for similar purposes. But they were sporting dreams that never have been realized as facts. The truth is that there is no place on this little earth that is now unclaimed by some civilized power, and all governments are absolutely set against the practice of gambling in any form. They won't allow it. Anacapa is either part of Mexico or else it is a portion of Ventura county—the question has not been definitely settled. Whichever ownership the syndicate may elect to serve under, however, the dilemma will be as hard to handle, for under the law of California they can't play, and under that of Mexico the business is as strenuously prohibited. So what are they going to do about it?

A Chinaman, arrested for vagrancy across the bay the other day, escaped conviction by proving that he follows the unusual vocation of soliciting for an undertaker. As he appears to be the only man engaged in that line of business over there it can with justice be said that he has a dead sure thing.

The Barbers' Union is trying to get a reduced rate from the San Francisco notaries for the affidavits that have to be taken under the new license law. It is only natural, though, that the notaries should consider themselves entitled to cut rates.

TIME TO INTERFERE.

The conflicts of nations usually grow out of the most insignificant affairs on the borders, and consequently the murders that are being committed on the Rio Grande or in that neighborhood should be regarded with a great deal more of seriousness than they are. It may seem of very little account that six men have been killed within a week, but, however harmonious the governments of the two nations may be, it will be a difficult matter to prevent a conflict if the men on the boundary line have drawn their swords.

Diaz, the President of Mexico, is too sensible a man to seek war with this country, as he knows what the inevitable outcome would be; but there are those around him who have none of his understanding and who would willingly plunge their country into a bloody struggle for something like what our recent Spanish antagonists termed "honor." The end would be the acquisition by this country of a large slice of the northern border of our sister republic. We would be glad to get the rich territory that would come to us—let us be honest with ourselves and confess that this is the truth—but we would not like to have a war forced upon us by the indiscreet actions of the border people.

War or no war, there is no question but that we must see that ample preparation be made for the killing of American Sheriffs in Southwest Texas by Mexicans. The brigands would have no opportunity to do their work if it were not for the protection which they receive from the authorities across the Rio Grande, as everyone who has lived along the boundary line between the two countries knows, and if the Mexican Federal government cannot protect our citizens by crushing lawlessness it is time for the United States to interfere in defense of its own citizens and of their property.

An Eastern financier says he is going to consolidate the three compressed air companies that are in the field and then run the business for all there is in it. Under the circumstances the suspicion is likely to be created that he is going to conduct the concern on wind.

A Kansas man has evolved the scheme of raffling himself off as a husband, 3,000 tickets being on sale to misguided and foolish women for $5 a piece. The chance he takes is apparently more than compensated for by the other 2,999 chances at $5 per.

MAJOR WATERS IS LOOKING FOR POSITION.

The fears of Major Waters, the celebrated chimney sweep of cake-walking fame, have been unduly aroused, as will appear from the following communication received, read and filed before the City Council last night:

"OAKLAND, June 25, 1901.

"To the Honorable City Council, Oakland: At your last regular meeting an ordinance was passed taxing all business signs for business purposes, and I wish to offer a protest. I am, as you know, a chimney cleaner expert, and I carry a sign on my hat. And I want to know if the ordinance will affect my business. As I am a poor man, I cannot afford to pay the tax and I would like you to make me an exception to the tax.

"I would also like to make my application for the jointership of the City Hall, providing there is to be a vacancy. Trusting to your honorable body to do me justice in the matter, I am, very sincerely and respectfully, your humble servant.

"MAJOR WATERS."

Miss Ray Frank of this city is to become the wife of T. A. Littman, whose home is in France and who has gained considerable notice as an author. Miss Frank was reared in Oakland, but she is one of the best known young Jewish women in this country. She has been in many States and has been instrumental in stirring the Jewish men and women to a keen interest in their literary and literary history. Miss Frank has filled pupils in several synagogues on this coast, and has been a recorded Jewish woman since the days of Deborah. This mark of preference gave rise to the assertion that this gifted young woman was to become a rabbi. This she denied, claiming that she could do more good in the career she had chosen.

Some time ago Miss Frank left Oakland that she might avail of the advantages offered for study in Europe. Eventually she went to the university at Munich, where she met the man she is to marry. He, too, had gone to the university that he might take advantage of its extensive library.

The wedding will probably take place in Paris, where Miss Frank and her husband will reside and continue their literary work.

NO MONEY FOR FOURTH OF JULY.

Council Says the Auditor and Mayor Will Not Honor the Demand.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The first step toward establishing a hospital where contagious diseases may be properly treated and isolated, was taken last night at the meeting of the City Council, when President Schaffer introduced, and under suspension of the rules, secured the adoption of a resolution "that a committee of three be appointed from the Council to confer with the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county, and with the Board of Health, with the object of establishing a hospital for the care and treatment of persons afflicted with contagious diseases."

President Schaffer will later in the week name the committee.

FLAGMEN'S HOURS FIXED.

Councilman Schaffer also introduced a resolution that the flagmen between 7 a. m. and 6 o'clock p. m. be fixed as the time required for the flagmen stationed at Seventh and Clay streets; First and Castro, First and Jefferson, First and Clay, First and Washington, to be on duty each day. This was referred to the Street Railway Committee.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Fixing the salary of the stenographer and typewriter in the office of the City Auditor and City Auditor at $50 per month, to take effect July 1st.

Approving the $500 bond of Mrs. S. E. Reed, as maroon of the City Prison, with the Pacific Surety Company as bondsmen.

Approving the liquor license bonds of Christensen & Shaw, 651 Washington street; Steinhart Daemon, 861 and 863 Wood street.

Allowing the Union Savings Bank to redeem certain parcel of real property illegally assessed and sold for delinquent taxes for the fiscal year 1899-1900, and directing the City Assessor, City Auditor and City Treasurer to strike the items so illegally assessed from the rolls, and tax sale books, and cancel the same.

Fixing compensation of quarantine guards hereafter, employed by the Board of Health at 25 cents per hour. Ordering paid claims of S. Smith for $111.50 and O. Page for $114.10.

Granting permission to Henry Dalton & Sons' company to lay four burr track on the sidewalk in front of their premises west side of Cedar street.

MATTERS REFERRED.

The following matters were referred to the Street Committee:

Petition of the Hutchinson-Ransome Company for permission to construct a four-foot wide sidewalk in front of F. M. Smith's property, corner of Fourth avenue and Peralta street.

Petition of Contractor A. E. Barrett for permission to erect a fence in the street around the corner of the lot of the Hutchinson-Ransome Co. for grade, curb, and macadamize East Nineteenth street between Fourth and Eleventh avenues.

Petition of Piedmont Paying Company to improve Chicago street. Later this request was granted.

A resolution of intention changing the grade of Monte Vista avenue from Bayo Vista avenue to Fairmont avenue.

TAX ON ADVERTISING.

Councilman Bon offered an ordinance fixing a city license tax of $50 per quarter on the general business of advertising by means of railroad or street cars, fences, or bill boards, or walls of buildings, or other structures, for advertising purposes, or distributing matter within the limits of the city.

The proposed ordinance does not apply to fixed places of business where the said business is advertised, nor to persons paying $10 per quarter license fee in advance who shall have the right to engage in the business of advertising by means of railroad cars and by distributing matter without payment of further sum. Violation of the ordinance is declared a misdemeanor punishable by fine not to exceed $100 or by imprisonment in the City Prison at the rate of one day for each $5 of fine imposed. This was referred to the Ordinance or Judiciary Committee.

To the same committee was referred Councilman Ruch's ordinance which declares a strip of land being designated on "map of a portion of Mrs. M. J. Boyce's property" as a street, to be not a street, and refusing to accept dedication thereof as a public street and abandoning same as a highway.

NO MONEY FOR THE FOURTH.

The resolution adopted by the Council some weeks ago appropriating $499 for the Fourth of July, was suspended pending toward celebrating the Fourth of July, was rescinded. President Schaffer and Councilman Courtney explained that the City Auditor refuses absolutely to draw the necessary warrant, and the Mayor refuses to permit that sum or any portion to be taken from the Emergency Fund.

Ordinances were finally adopted as follows:

Fixing a $15 per quarter license for druggists who sell intoxicating liquors on prescription.

Establishing width of sidewalks on portion of Piedmont avenue, (in annexed district) at seven feet.

Establishing width of sidewalks on Oakland avenue in annexed district at twelve feet.

Establishing grades on Fairmont avenue from Monte Vista avenue to El Dorado avenue.

An ordinance fixing the water rates of the year ending June 30, 1902, was also finally adopted, by the following vote:

Noes—Bon, Boyer, Bishop, Courtney, Ruch, Schaffer, Wilson.
Ayes—Fitzgerald, Wallace.
Absent—Cavellier, Domin.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

To the Public Improvement Committee was referred a communication from C. T. Welch urging that weeds be cleared from the space between sidewalks and curb, particularly about Independence Square.

After Marriage

They are going to be together just as much as before; going to ride the wheel, take little pleasure jaunts, etc., enjoying everything together. Isn't that what you want? And yet, how very soon the wife begins to say "No, I don't think I care to go. You go alone, dear." Young women don't reckon on the great physical changes which follow marriage. How can they when they are allowed to grow up in entire ignorance of vital physiological facts? They feel languid, weak and nervous. Sometimes there is headache and backache. The pulse no more leaps in answer to the thought of a spin on the wheel. Women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, know how promptly the languor, headache, backache, nervousness and weakness are cured by this medicine. Many husbands write in gratitude to Dr. Pierce for the medicine which gives them back the wife's companionship, as it gives her back her health. "Favorite Prescription" writes Mr. John W. Coffman of Elsburg, Casey Co., Ky. "My wife suffered with female irregularity, was confined to bed every three weeks. After using two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription she was cured, and has not suffered any further since. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is a boon to delicate women."

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

land Gas Light & Heat Company to erect an electric light at the corner of Eighth and Peralta street, was referred to the Light Committee.

The application of J. Bettencourt for a license to conduct a saloon at 8833 Shattuck avenue was laid over another week on motion of Councilman Boyer. The Council then adjourned to next Monday night. But meeting of the Committee of the Whole was held later in the evening.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY PLEASSED WITH TUNNEL.

Regarding the action of the Supervisors of this county on the question of a tunnel between this and Contra Costa counties, the Contra Costa Gazette of Martinez says:

"After the vote was taken Secretary Wilber Walker and George W. Arper of the Merchants' Exchange thanked the Supervisors for going on record. "This practically insures the building of the tunnel road, for which similar resolutions passed by the Supervisors of both Alameda and Contra Costa counties and the deeds of the right of way in a fair way to be granted without any further delay the legal steps preliminary to the actual work of construction can soon begin."

"The fight has been one of long standing with the Merchants' Exchange, and it was only because the Legislature at its last session passed a bill permitting Boards of Supervisors to levy special taxes for such purposes that the appropriation from each county could be secured."

AFTER MEN WHO SELL LIQUOR.

Berkeley Trustees Have Scheme to Place Merchants on Their Honor.

BERKELEY, June 25.—Owing to the absence of Trustee Ryder from the meeting of the Town Board last evening, the mooted liquor question did not come up. The turning down of the request for permission to sell school property made the session a lively one. On motion of Trustee Staats, M. L. Henscom, who was defeated for the office of Town Clerk, after having held the position for a number of years, was appointed Deputy Clerk.

Trustee Richards advised that no action be taken in regard to the mile limit liquor license ordinance proposed by Trustee Ryder at the last meeting, owing to the absence of the latter. He is the father of a scheme to compel every business man to take out a license. This shall be revoked whenever the holder of the mercantile permit is found to be engaged in selling liquor illegally.

The sewerage of Hearst avenue from Shattuck avenue to a point 100 feet west was ordered upon recommendation of the Street Committee.

An increase of the telephone license to $30 a quarter and the laundry license to $8 a quarter was advised by Trustee Staats, but action was deferred, owing to the absence of Trustee Hoff of the license Committee.

Leave of absence was granted Town Clerk Charles Thomas until July 1st and also to Superintendent of Streets C. D. Muloney for two weeks from June 25.

Owing to the lowness of the proposals all bids for the engine and engine house by the town at the electric light works were rejected.

Health Officer Rowell stated that the quarantine had been removed from the State Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

The bill of Henry Frank, who asked for pay as a quarantine officer at the institution, was not allowed on the ground that the State should pay the claim.

President Little of the Board of Education asked permission to sell 500 feet of school property on Center street. Trustee Turner moved that the request be granted, but upon the advice of Trustee Staats the matter was deferred. He said he wanted to know the buyer and the price and said he commended the stand taken by School Director Weir in regard to the holding of public property rather than selling it to pay increases in the salaries of school teachers.

A sidewalk was ordered laid on Piedmont avenue from Dwight way to Channing street. The property owners were given thirty days to do the work in.

A petition for a sewer on Spring street to Vine was referred to the Street Committee.

Specifications for a culvert at San Pablo and University avenues were adopted.

E. W. Linforth protested against the swiftness with which the electric cars are operated on Bancroft way above Shattuck avenue.

Mrs. E. J. Barrett was granted a quitclaim deed to a portion of Shattuck avenue in front of her lot.

IRVINGTON PEOPLE ARE ON VACATION.

IRVINGTON, June 25.—Mr. Powell and daughter Gretchen have returned from their camping trip at the forks of Alameda creek.

Mr. Savage was much improved at last accounts. He is still camping out in the hills.

Mr. James A. Brewer is having his house and tank-house painted. It is a great improvement to the property, and to that part of the town. Mr. T. D. Withers is doing the work.

A great many of the residents here have gone camping, among them being Gruu and Werner, who own the winery near town. They have gone to Santa Cruz and other seaside towns.

Professor Anderson and daughter Ethel have returned from a delightful trip to Yosemite. The falls are grander and the valley more beautiful than ever this year.

"A Spoke in the Wheel."

The physical machinery of most people often has a "spoke in the wheel." That is, they have some disorder which either impedes their progress or creates nerve friction in some portion of their delicate mechanism.

Piles is a tedious and persistent disease which wears out the patience of its victims. It has several forms of torture.

Sometimes it is a maddening itching sensation. At other times it is a knot of aching tumors highly inflamed.

The only way to cure the disease permanently is to use a remedy that has the power to permeate through the delicate membranes and tissues and remove all traces of inflammation.

The Pyramid Pile Cure possesses this power to perfection. It is formulated on scientific principles by specialists who understand the nature of the disease thoroughly.

"Thousands have been permanently cured by it, and the manufacturers have come to look upon it as a 'remedy that never fails.'"

You need not go through an inconvenient course of dieting and supplementary treatment while using it. It is a complete cure, requiring nothing on your part but a strict observance of the printed directions which go with each package.

It is manufactured by the Pyramid Drug Co., at Marshall, Mich., and may be had of all first-class druggists.

Don't experiment if you are afflicted with this troublesome disease. It may lead to serious complications if allowed to continue. Get the remedy and check the disease before it becomes chronic; don't allow it to drain your best energies and weaken your constitution.

DR. POWELL IS A GOOD THING.

Haywards Burglar Pays Him an Annual Visit and Gets Gold.

HAYWARDS, June 25.—Early Sunday morning Dr. A. J. Powell's office in the Luce Block was visited again, and for the fourth time, by a "Knight of the Jimmy." For the past four years, and at about the same time each year, the doctor's office has been visited, apparently by the same party. Who ever did the work evidently knew his way around the office, there being nothing disturbed, except a drawer in the cabinet which had been opened and some $10 worth of gold, used for filling teeth, removed. The doctor is at a loss to understand why he should be the victim each year. There is no clerk by which the burglar might be identified, and no one is suspected, but it is evident from all appearances that it is the same man who has made the three other early morning trips to the doctor's office. The robbery was committed some time after the lights were out Sunday morning. The door was pried open with a jimmy, and while doing the work the man used twenty-seven matches, the ends of which were scattered around the door. Last year the room was entered by the transom and over $80 worth of gold and materials stolen.

PRESIDENT WHEELER BACK FROM THE EAST.

BERKELEY, June 25.—President Benjamin H. Wheeler has returned from the East. When interviewed he said:

"I have looked over an enormous amount of material and am ready to report on names and places which the Regents asked me to look out for. I do not feel at liberty to mention any of the names until after the Regents' meeting next Friday. It is necessary that I confer with them before making anything public."

I visited Chicago, San Antonio, New York. At all these places I had appointments with men who are being thought of for positions here. I also talked with a great many men at Pennsylvania and Baltimore and interviewed them concerning appointments at the University of California.

"There is a man for the new chair of anatomy and one for that difficult position of head of the Department of Commerce and Economics. I have had very hard work to find suitable men. The field is new and experts—men who can teach such a subject—are extremely scarce. I have secured a number of excellent ones. Within a year I hope we shall add three new persons to our teaching force in this department."

The President laughed when questioned as to his giving up his office for an Eastern one.

"That talk is absurd," he said, "there is no place so good as California."

FOURTH OF JULY AT ELMHURST.

ELMHURST, June 25.—On Saturday evening the combined committees from the different lodges held a meeting to make final arrangements for the big Fourth of July celebration to be given by this town on the Toler ranch at Laurel Grove. There will be literary exercises, dancing, games and prizes.

The committee has worked hard to make the affair a success, and all should assist by attending the celebration, which will be the first ever given by this town. The committee is as follows: Grounds and Transportation, B. Magnusson, M. S. Snow and Frank Jewell. Concessions, Geo. M. Moore, Geo. W. Graves and J. O. Clary.

Mr. Savage was much improved at last accounts. He is still camping out in the hills.

Mr. James A. Brewer is having his house and tank-house painted. It is a great improvement to the property, and to that part of the town. Mr. T. D. Withers is doing the work.

The Pyramid Pile Cure possesses this power to perfection. It is formulated on scientific principles by specialists who understand the nature of the disease thoroughly.

"Thousands have been permanently cured by it, and the manufacturers have come to look upon it as a 'remedy that never fails.'"

You need not go through an inconvenient course of dieting and supplementary treatment while using it. It is a complete cure, requiring nothing on your part but a strict observance of the printed directions which go with each package.

It is manufactured by the Pyramid Drug Co., at Marshall, Mich., and may be had of all first-class druggists.

Don't experiment if you are afflicted with this troublesome disease. It may lead to serious complications if allowed to continue. Get the remedy and check the disease before it becomes chronic; don't allow it to drain your best energies and weaken your constitution.

DECOTO GIRL HAS A RARE PLANT.

DECOTO, June 25.—A San Francisco paper lately chronicled the fact of there being brought from their native soil in Napa county some specimens of tiger lilies, which are said to be extremely rare.

This was three years ago, but this is the first season they have blossomed. They grow best in heat moist soil in canyons under dense shade trees. Since the young lady has come into this country she has been very lucky in possessing such a rare plant and is undoubtedly the first and only one in the county who has them.

MESSAGE SENT TO GENERAL SHAFER.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—In view of a dispatch received at the War Department this morning from General Shafter at San Francisco, reporting four deaths from the bubonic plague at Honolulu between May 29th and June 9th, Assistant Secretary Sanger has telegraphed General Shafter to confer with General Corbin and if it is deemed desirable, to call the Hancock so as to sail direct through to Manila.

According to General Shafter's message, the President of the Honolulu Board of Health believes he has the plague situation well in hand.

NINE HOUSES WERE WASHED AWAY.

RICHMOND, Va., June 25.—A special from Tazewell, Va., says that at Cedar Bluff, west of there, nine houses were washed away but no lives were lost as far as known. Many mill dams are gone.

The town of Liberty, nine miles west of Tazewell, is badly damaged. The flood seems to have embraced the whole country, extending into the eastern part of Russell and Forty-Mile road.

WAR OPENED BY STREET CAR MEN

Chicago Franchise Propositions Will Now Be Heard in the Courts.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Chicago street car interests today divulged their plans of campaign in the impending franchise war. Representing the Elkins, Whitney syndicate, W. T. Elkins of Philadelphia began suit in the Circuit Court against the city of Chicago, the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railway, and the North Chicago City Railway Company, asking the court to restrain the city from interfering with the operation of the West Chicago and North Chicago street car lines under its present charter.

The plaintiff asks the court to declare that the companies became invested by the State with the franchises until 1900 and that the city is restrained from forfeiting the charters July 29, 1903. This action means that the war is opened by the street car people, since the plaintiff represents the owners of all the former Yerkes surface property. Recently the city authorities have been forming plans for the proper disposition of the franchises after they shall have been forfeited, some of the city's economists urging that the traction rights be either retained by the city or leased on a sliding scale of revenue with universal transfers and a graded fare.

LIST OF DEAD IS NOT YET COMPLETE.

Hundreds of Women Were Saved
By a Life Line in the Great Flood.

STORY TOLD BY AN EYE-WITNESS TO AFFAIR.

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., June 25.—Reports from points south in the lower end of the flooded district indicate that the loss of life has been largely exaggerated. Probably not over one hundred have perished.

Many Are Missing.
RICHMOND, Va., June 25.—The Dispatch correspondent returned from the scene of the Keyston flood disaster early today. There is no possible way yet to estimate the loss of life or property. Hundreds of people are missing or reported missing, and a large number of dead bodies have been recovered. Everywhere is debris of wrecked houses, demolished railroad cars and broken and splintered household furniture and now and then the corpse of a victim. Railroad iron was bent by the force of the water. Iron bridges resting on their piers of solid masonry withstood the strain but a moment and went down.

How Many Made Their Escape.
KEYSTONE, W. Va., June 25.—The following story is told by an eye-witness of the great flood:
"Keystone is the metropolis of the Elk River mining country. It has but

OHIO REPUBLICANS RE-NOMINATE GOV. NASH AND PLAN A GREAT CAMPAIGN.

Senator Hanna Receives an Ovation and Commends the Administration of President McKinley—
Platform of the Convention Says that the Pledges of the Party Are Being Faithfully Kept by the Administration — Our Position in the Philippines.

CONVENTION HALL, COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 25.—The Republican State Convention convened at Auditorium Hall at 10 o'clock. The great hall was packed when Temporary Chairman Foraker rapped for order, and was given a great ovation.

The committee on credentials presented a report signed by twenty of its twenty-one members in favor of the "Hanna delegates" from Fayette county. The report was adopted. The only Daugherty man on the committee offered no minority report, as was generally expected.

Hanna For Chairman.
The committee on permanent organization reported it had selected Chairman Hanna as permanent chairman and continued the rest of the temporary organization. The report was adopted.

Senator Foraker introduced Senator Hanna as the "man who knew his business and how to attend to it." A great demonstration ensued.

Hanna Returns Thanks.

Chairman Hanna returned his thanks for the honor and then stated that Senator Foraker had already sounded the keynote and would continue to do so in the campaign, and that all Republicans in Ohio would be with him to a man. He eulogized Foraker's speech and his record, in the Senate and said all the people in Ohio were for his re-election except the Democrats.

He insisted that the coming contest in Ohio was one of a national character and on national issues. It was

One of the Prisoners Spent $30-000 in One Month Having a Good Time.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 25.—Warren W. Stoner and Conkling Jones, under arrest in Chicago on a charge of uttering and passing bogus drafts, are well known in Kansas City. Stoner formerly kept a livery stable here and Jones is known as a professional gambler. Stoner lived in Kansas City for several years, coming here from Kentucky. He is married and had two children. He once owned "Donogh," a well known trotter.

He was left $100,000 by his father in Kentucky and is credited with having squandered it in the past four years. He spent $30,000 in one month in Kansas City and two months ago, at the Zantonia race meet, he is said to have spent $7,000 in six days. This is said to have been the last of his fortune.

Last week local detectives learned that Stoner and Jones had had one hundred blank drafts on the "Farmers' National Bank of Topeka" printed at a local shop, Stoner representing himself as an official of the concern. There is no such bank. The men left for Chicago on June 20th, the detectives following close on their heels.

HIGH COURT HEARS TREASON CHARGE.

PARIS, June 25.—The Senate, sitting as a high court, today heard the witnesses for the prosecution in the trial of the Marquis de Lur-Saluces, charged with treason. Their evidence did not develop anything new. General Zurlinden, the former Military Governor of Paris, testified that he believed that De Lur-Saluces' attempt to induce some of the troops to march on the Palace on the day of President Faure's funeral was not prearranged. The officers, he added, had no idea of turning from their duty. France could rely on the army always doing its duty.

TWO YEARS MILITARY SERVICE IN PARIS.

PARIS, June 25.—The Senatorial Army Committee at a meeting today decided in favor of two years' compulsory military service instead of three.

STRIKE IS DECLARED TO BE ENDED.

the most critical period for the support of the National Administration.

Reviewed McKinley's Administration.
He then reviewed the first administration of President McKinley and insisted that his second administration was still more important for the domestic, insular and foreign affairs of the country. He discussed the financial issues at length and insisted that the country demanded a continuance of confidence in the Government in order to have continued prosperity.

An Appeal to Republicans.

He appealed to Ohio Republicans to do away with all factional differences and stand by the President and a Republican Congress. In discussing the tariff he said this was no time for experiments in that line or in any other. This was no time for financial, industrial or other disturbances. He favored personal liberty so long as it did not interfere with the public good and made no other allusion to State affairs. Senator Hanna was loudly applauded as he proceeded and also when he concluded.

Platform Adopted.

General Charles H. Grosvenor presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted.

The platform reaffirms the principles set forth by the last National Republican Convention and continues:

"The Republican party, by its magnificent achievements, has added lustre to American history, and under its administration of national affairs the United States has become a world power of the first class. Industry has

BOERS HAVE A FIERCE BATTLE.

Fight the British in a Hand-to-
Hand Contest in South Africa.

CAPE TOWN, June 25.—Details of the engagement between General Buller's column and De Wet's force near Rietz Junction show that the British surprised the Boer command.

The Boers fled, but, seeing that the captors were not in strong force, the Boers returned and fought with great determination, after desperate fighting retreating the Boers.

The Boers lay beneath their wagons and unrelentingly fired volleys between the wheels, while their comrades were engaged in in-springing and driving off that portion of the convoy furthest from the British. The latter pushed in among the wagons, using the bayonet freely. General Buller was present and personally used a rifle. A man at his right hand was killed and the comrade on his left hand wounded.

"The affair ended in a series of hand to hand encounters and fierce melees, the Boers eventually being driven off. One of General De Wet's staff officers was wounded and taken prisoner."

CHINESE MAKE CLAIM AGAINST UNITED STATES.

PEKING, June 25.—The China Merchants' Company, owners of the premises in Tien Tsin at first occupied by the marines and afterwards by Liscam's command, have completed their claim against the United States Government for value of property carried off by the marines. The list comprises many valuable furs, rugs and jewels, including diamonds. The total of the claim is 4,000 taels. The company says that the premises being a part of the foreign concession, were willingly lent for military necessities, but that they were not subject to looting as they would have been if they had been in the Chinese city.

FORGED NOTES ARE DISCOVERED IN AKRON.

AKRON, Ohio, June 25.—Forged notes aggregating $25,000 have been discovered by the Akron Yarnish Company. J. H. McCrum, treasurer of the company, has been missing for a week and is supposed to be en route to South America. It was supposed that his accounts were straight, the only shortage discovered being an overdraft for $1,500. Action has been begun by creditors asking that the property of the company be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of debts.

STRIKE IS DECLARED TO BE ENDED.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 25.—This strike of miners at the Meccaquana Colliery of the West End Coal Company has been settled and the 800 employees returned to work today.

The men struck because non-union laborers were employed. Yesterday the non-union men joined the union and the United Mine Workers decided to call the strike off.

revived. Capital and labor are employed, plenty has succeeded want, and the cry of the hungry and unemployed is no longer heard, but from every quarter comes the demand for workmen at the highest wages ever paid to American labor. Our export trade has increased until it leads the world, approximating for the present year $1,500,000,000. The Republican party by its monetary legislation has established the gold standard, thereby removing the menace of an inflated currency and its attendant repudiation of its financial obligations, public and private, and raised our credit above that of any other nation.

"A Republican Congress has relieved the people by a reduction in direct taxation approximating $40,000,000, and our national treasury shows a growing surplus has succeeded an increasing deficit."

Triumph of Protection.

The platform sets forth that the principle of protection has achieved its most signal triumph in the results of the Dingley Tariff Law and that the Republican tariff policy has made the farmer and laborer more prosperous than ever; reaffirms all declarations heretofore made by the Republican party in favor of reciprocity; favors the further strengthening of our navy and such legislation as will restore our merchant marine to pre-eminence upon the seas; urges the speedy construction of an American ship canal through the Isthmus as an imperative public need; recognizes the right of both labor and capital to combine when such combination

Emil Nusbaumer Tells About the Plans for the College Town.

INJUNCTION DEFEATED IN SUPERIOR COURT.

Berkeley is to have a new electric street railway. Attorney Emil Nusbaumer, president of the Claremont, University, and Ferries Street Railroad Company, stated in court this morning that it was the intention of those who had "purchased the latter system to replace it with a modern electric line."

The statement was made during the hearing of the petition of C. J. Bruschke for an injunction restraining the new owners of the road from tearing up and removing the old rails and road bed.

Judge Ellsworth, after hearing the arguments in the case, denied Bruschke's application for an injunction. The work of replacing the old road by an electric system may now be carried on without interference, with the exception that there is still pending an application presented by the Berkeley Development Company for an injunction to prevent the removal of the railroad buildings on its property. This matter will come up for determination on July 8th.

Bruschke's attorney, W. H. Waster, contended in his argument that the franchise which was purchased by F. J. Woodward, had not been sold properly. He claimed that it should have been sold as really instead of as a personal property. Furthermore, he contended, the new owners should be compelled to operate and keep in condition the old road until one year, the period of redemption, had elapsed. His client, he said, intended to redeem the property.

Attorney Nusbaumer representing the defendants, denied the contentions presented and stated further that if Bruschke's old road, however, an option within a year, it would be much more to his advantage to have the line operated with electricity than as it had been operated. He said he was the intention to conduct the new road in a first class manner in every respect.

The new road will connect with the main line terminals of the Telegraph avenue line on Shattuck avenue, also with the Grove Street line, known Shattuck avenue it will run on Addison, Fourth and Delaware streets to the West Berkeley local depot. Work had already been commenced removing the old tracks when the temporary injunction was granted.

Bruschke owns thirty-four shares of the old road. He has, however, an option from Woodward for the purchase of the 401 shares that were sold under the "credit" sale. This option will expire July 5. There are only 500 shares of capital stock. Five shares are owned by the directors.

Although his action to enjoin the new owners from tearing up the tracks failed, Bruschke says he has not finished with the matter and that he will take further steps to secure the property. He is one of the backers of the new furniture manufacturing company that has been recently established at West Berkeley.

EDNA WALLACE IN A STATE OF COLLAPSE.

Popular Little Actress is Now Under the Care of Trained Nurses.

FUNERAL OF HER MOTHER FIXED FOR THURSDAY.

SAN LEANDRO, June 25.—Edna Wallace, the distinguished comedienne, lies in a state of physical collapse and unconsciousness in an apartment of the Dunsmuir mansion on the Southern farm, near this place, while the pall of death rests over the remains of her mother, the late Mrs. Alex Dunsmuir, which lie in an adjoining chamber.

Two trained nurses are at the bedside of the little actress, and skilled physicians are in attendance. Nurses and physicians say that the prostration may result fatally if the patient is not given the greatest care.

The unfortunate condition of the sprightly comedienne has been superinduced by the sight of her dead mother, who had passed away while the daughter was away from home.

The receipt of the news of Mrs. Dunsmuir's illness by Miss Wallace caused the young lady to cancel her professional engagement and to hasten home, but the mother passed away before the homeward journey was half traversed.

The bad news, however, reached the traveler, and she wrought upon her feelings that when she arrived and beheld the speechless form of her mother, she broke into tears. Tears were followed by hysteria, and then succumbing to the great

FRICK ABLY ARGUES FOR ACQUITTAL OF BRANDES

He Attacks the Chain of Circumstantial Evidence at Every Point, Accusing the Prosecution of Giving Importance to Trifles to Make Out a Case—Mrs. Godfrey Excoriated.

This morning Judge A. L. Frick resumed his argument for the defense in the case of W. A. Brandes charged with the murder of his daughter. With great earnestness and skill he welded a great mass of related circumstances going to show that the girl really died from the effect of blows received in a fight with her step-mother. He sifted the evidence with great care and adroitness, and attacked one after another the propositions of the prosecution, drawing entirely different conclusions from the same set of facts, and giving a totally different color to the various incidents than the one held up by Walsh.

Yesterday he dissected the evidence given by the medical experts showing that all of them differed from each other as to the length of time that elapsed between the infliction of the injuries and death. He quoted Dr. Rowell's testimony to show that the figure had been placed around the neck of the dead girl at least six hours after death had taken place, from which he argued that it was impossible for Brandes to have inflicted the fatal injuries on Saturday morning. As the body was discovered at 7 o'clock he contended that the girl could not have died later than on Friday night. As the injuries were inflicted twelve hours or more before that time, he argued that the blows that caused death were inflicted Thursday night or Friday.

Harvey had seen the girl apparently well at eight o'clock Friday night. The injuries that caused death, as the physicians testified, might not have incapacitated the girl for two or three days after she had received them. It was Wednesday night that the fight between Lillian and her stepmother took place. All this was cited to show that the girl did not suddenly succumb from any beating, but that she died as the result of blows on the head sometime prior to death.

He scouted the statement that Brandes did not love his daughter or treat her with habitual cruelty. The defense, he said, showed that the girl made a year or so prior to the girl's death was purely peculiar as was shown by the fact that he kissed her affectionately immediately after.

The denial of relations of jealousy was apparently a concession to the jealousy of the wife, who did not like the child of a former marriage. It was the effort of a man who loved both his wife and daughter to arrange matters so that he could live in peace and without disturbance in the household.

Frick charged Assistant District Attorney Walsh with quoting only such parts of the testimony as bore against the defendant. He said that the portions as made in his favor. The reference to the girl sleeping in the basement was unfair, he declared, because it was not shown that the basement was a place where she was not permitted to sleep in. It was not shown to be dark or dismal or that the girl had any repugnance to sleeping there. It was not shown that Brandes would not have preferred her to sleep in the house with the other members of the family.

This morning Frick renewed his dissection of the evidence for the prosecution. It was not true that Brandes called on a lady friend shortly after the death of the child. The evidence was that he came to Oakland and met a lady acquaintance on the street and told her that there had been a sad death in his family. This circumstance, along with many others of like character, were brought forward in a way to give a color to guilt when they were more pointed to guilt than they pointed to innocence.

It was sought to make something out of the fact that a witness shook hands with the defendant on Saturday morning and found his hand cold. Are such trifling circumstances as this to determine the guilt or innocence of this defendant? If such circumstances as these are to be taken against the defendant, why should not all the circumstances be quoted? They are all equally applicable, and they assist in explaining each other. Taken together they present an entirely different complexion from that given them by Mr. Walsh.

The delusive statements made by Brandes to Deputy Sheriff White were perfectly natural. The circumstances of the death were known to him, and he knew that many others who desired to find something to bring against him and cause his arrest. He knew that suspicions had been aroused, and the reasons for concealment arose from a desire to protect his household. Under the circumstances he could not be expected to place himself in the hands of his enemies. Suppose he were innocent himself, but desired to shield some one else, and avert still greater trouble from his home?

Mr. Walsh repeatedly referred to the marble-face and bloodless countenance of this defendant. Does this supply any evidence of guilt? Then he said he was the most unconcerned man in the courtroom. The bloodless face and the unconcerned countenance were the only evidence of guilt he then says.

ed to hide the unnatural crime from the light of day."

Mr. Walsh closed with a definition of the various degrees of murder, and an impassioned appeal to the jury to inflict righteous punishment on the perpetrator of the horrible crime.

FRICK OPENS FOR THE DEFENSE.

After an intermission of fifteen minutes, Judge Frick began his argument for the defense. At the outset he admitted that Lillian Brandes died from violence, and not from violence at her own hands. "It may be accepted as a fact," he said, "that this little girl did not die from hanging nor from taking poison." Proceeding from this guarded admission, Judge Frick denied that Mrs. Brandes was placed on the stand with the understanding that she would not testify. He said the offer of the District Attorney to admit the testimony given by Mrs. Brandes at the former trial was immaterial and inconsequential because it could not be made admissible.

OHIO REPUBLICANS NOMINATE GOVERNOR

tions are wisely administered for the general good, but opposes combinations which create monopolies to control prices or limit production; asks for a renewal of the wise provisions for restricted immigration of Chinese into this country; expresses gratitude to the soldiers and sailors of the United States for their valor and sufferings; demands the strict enforcement of constitutional measures guaranteeing to every citizen the right of franchise and denouncing lynching.

Our Victory Over Spain.

Referring to the recent war with Spain, the platform sets forth that our victory imposed responsibilities and obligations greater than any which have arisen in a generation. The blessings of liberty have been extended to millions of human beings. The Monroe doctrine has been firmly upheld.

Regarding the trouble in China, the platform says: "The prudent and successful management of American interests in China by President McKinley has added new glory to American arms and American diplomacy."

Our New Possessions.

In touching upon Cuban independence, it is stated that the Nation's pledge to the island of Cuba is being faithfully kept, insuring freedom and independence to her people. Order has been maintained, the interests of the United States conserved and the island today is enjoying more natural prosperity than ever before. We congratulate the people of Cuba upon the wise and conservative action in favor of stable government. Porto Rico is flourishing beyond all her former experience. Hawaii's entrance into full territorial relations with the United States Government has been marked by the most marvelous progress known in the history of those islands.

In the Philippines.

"In the Philippine Islands a wicked insurrection has been suppressed, the chief leaders have taken the oath of allegiance and the anticipated large increase in our regular army has been rendered unnecessary. Civil government, contemplating the largest practicable degree of home rule, has succeeded military control. The American flag now flies over the islands, and the personal freedom with an equality of rights heretofore to them unknown is secured to every inhabitant.

All these beneficent results have been accomplished by the enactment into law of Republican principles, and we congratulate President McKinley upon his wise, patriotic and brilliant administration. Facing unnumbered and grave responsibilities, he has met them prudently, bravely and successfully, and we as Republicans unqualifiedly approve the course of the Republican administration.

The platform concludes by endorsing the administration of Governor Nash, commending Senators Foraker and Hanna and endorsing Senator Foraker for a second term.

Nash is Nominated.

Hon. Henry C. Taylor, who presented the name of George K. Nash four years ago to the convention for Governor, presented his name today, and he was nominated by acclamation. A committee escorted Governor Nash to the hall and he was given a rousing reception. In accepting the nomination Governor Nash reviewed the record of the past ten years, and especially that of the past two years, and held that the showing was such that even their Democratic opponents could not fault with it.

Other Nominations.

When nominations for Lieutenant Governor were called for, State Senator Carl N. Nipper of Hamilton county was nominated without opposition by acclamation.

For the nomination of Judge of the Supreme Court there were presented the names of J. L. Price, Wm. B. Crew and Thaddeus A. Minshall, the incumbent. The first ballot resulted: Price, 49; Crew, 37; Minshall, 32; necessary to elect 66. The second ballot resulted as follows: Price, 62; Crew, 25; Minshall, 16. The nomination of Price was made unanimous.

John M. Sheets, for Attorney General, was nominated for a second term without opposition.

For the nomination of Clerk of the Supreme Court was presented the names of Newton M. Miller, W. B. Hall, W. C. Critchfield and Lawson E. Emerson. The first ballot resulted: Miller, 32-1-3; Hall, 33; Critchfield, 17-1-3; Emerson, 50-1-3. The nomination of Emerson was made unanimous.

Isaac B. Cameron for State Treasurer and W. G. Johnson for member of the State Board of Public Works were re-nominated without opposition.

Resolutions were adopted extending sympathy to Secretary Hay in his bereavement.

At 1:10 P. M. the convention adjourned.

WOMEN MEET AT BERKELEY.

Many Excellent Papers Read at the All-day Session in College Town.

BERKELEY, June 25.—The auditorium of the Unitarian Church was filled today with an audience of notable women who met to discuss "Women's Work and Women's Clubs" at an all-day symposium.

Chief interest centered about Mrs. May Wright Sewall, president of the International Council of Women, who opened the discussion of each topic on the lengthy program.

The occasion took the form of a reception to Mrs. Sewall.

The session was opened at 10 o'clock by Mrs. Mary Snell Poulson, who called for nominations for a presiding officer. Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard, who was chosen at once, took the chair.

In her address of welcome she outlined the work of the Women's International Council, giving particular emphasis to the value of concerted effort in the doing of good for humanity's sake.

A wave of enthusiasm thrilled the assembly when Mrs. Sewall was introduced. In speaking upon her topic, "Women's Work and Women's Clubs," she said:

"Perhaps I should feel more of a stranger than I do, coming within your gates. San Francisco and all its suburban towns are alike to me. In Berkeley is one of my dearest friends, Mrs. Julia Sanborn. For that reason alone I should not feel like a stranger."

She then spoke of the work of the Women's International Council, giving particular emphasis to the value of concerted effort in the doing of good for humanity's sake.

"The Sorosis Club of New York was not the first well known modern club. It was the first of its kind. The club, which has given the State so much in richness of interest, residence, Mrs. Owen was a talented woman who had been sent to Germany and France to study."

"Upon her return she found herself alone, but by collecting a number of noble women of her kind she was able to effect an organization."

Ten years after that Jennie June, at the request of Alice and Phoebe Cary organized a woman's club. Every thing that women do begins in womanly things. This tells the story of the founding of the Sorosis Club. The Sorosis originated in the desire of a few women to attend a party, the special one at which was Charles Dickens, who was entertained at New York."

A fine program was carried out this afternoon.

SITE SELECTED FOR THE ST. LOUIS FAIR.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 25.—Forest Park was today selected as the site on which to hold the World's Fair in this city in 1903 to commemorate the one-hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana purchase. The Executive Committee, which for the past few weeks has been considering the merits of the various sites offered, reported today in favor of Forest Park, and the Board of Directors promptly ratified the selection. Tomorrow the National Committee will act on the matter. The site selected is that proposed by the Forest Park World's Fair Free Site and contains 668 acres in the west or unimproved portion of Forest Park and 450 acres adjoining on the west and southwest. This is one-third more space than was used by the Columbian Exposition in Jackson Park, Chicago. It takes up the western half of Forest Park and considerable vacant land adjoining to the west and southwest. Forest Park, which contains between 1,300 and 1,400 acres and is the second largest park in the country, lies in the western part of the city, surrounded on three sides by magnificent residences and the buildings of Washington University. It is easily accessible from all parts of the city by both steam and electric railroads and topographically is an ideal site for a World's Fair.

LIST OF DEAD.

one narrow street, and because of limited space many houses were built on piles or walls over the Elkhorn or close up against the mountains. The town follows the encroachments of the stream for a mile.

"By 9 a. m. the narrow valley was a raging torrent. Houses and barns, bridges, livestock and human beings were swept away by the mighty current and dashed on the rocks or trees below.

The First Warning.

"I was stopping at a hotel. At the first warning many of the inhabitants took refuge on the mountain side overlooking the town and river. More than a hundred people, however, remained in the town to look after the women and children who have given their lives here. In the morning the water was low, then the angry waters rushed through the only street in the town and we found hundreds cut off from the mountain retreat and the hotel was made fast to the telephone poles by means of a line. Hundreds of lives were lost. But in attempting to cross the muddy, surging waters which swept like an avalanche down this street, many lost their hold and in plain sight of friends were carried into the river and drowned. Houses plunged and danced in the mighty stream, with screaming women and children on the roofs, thus the cattle and other animals drowned about us.

The Destruction.

"The Norfolk and Western Railroad fill at this place gave way and more than a mile of track now lies in the bed of the river. In fact it is hard to tell how many miles of track and how many bridges have been swept away. The destruction is tremendous to the railway alone, and it may be many days and perhaps weeks before trains can run. The loss of life cannot be estimated from here. It is known eight lives were lost here. Six bodies have been recovered at Roanoke, two miles below here. Several were drowned at Shawnee and a greater part of the town swept away.

Life Line for Women.

"All the women were conveyed from the hotel to the mountainside by means of the life line. Then the men left, as the place was unsafe. When it came my turn I seized the line and plunged into the muddy current. In an instant my feet were swept from under me and I felt the light of my life to be lost on the other side. The distance was not great and the water not more than three feet deep, but the current was almost irresistible and even cows and horses were swept past me as I clung to the rope which was the only hope. Finally I was able to pull out more dead than alive. The hotel is still standing."

WILL BE TRIED BY JURY OF HIS PEERS.

LONDON, June 25.—In the Old Bailey Court this morning the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Earl Russell for bigamy and the Recorder announced that the trial would take place in the House of Lords.

The action of the court yesterday in making absolute the decree nisi obtained in December, 1900, by George John Sumner in his divorce suit against his wife, in which Earl Russell was made co-respondent, was a purely legal formality.

In charging the Grand Jury the Recorder said that even if Earl's divorce was valid in the United States, it would not be binding in Great Britain.

In the course of the day the Recorder notified the Lord Chancellor (Lord Halsbury) of the finding of the Grand Jury. A committee of the House of Lords will be appointed in due time to arrange the procedure in the case.

POLITICS NOW ENTER IN THE
SCHOOL CONTEST

S. P. Meads Lining Up His Forces to Try for the High School Position.

SAYS HE HAS PROMISE OF THE PLACE.

The quest for a principal of the High School to succeed J. B. McChesney has narrowed down to "three or four" men. The names of those men will be presented to the Board of Education in time to be acted upon at its meeting next Monday night. By that time, however, one of these "three or four" will have received the endorsement of the Committee on High Schools, and the person so recommended will undoubtedly be elected.

MEADS' CANDIDACY.
The question was raised this morning by a rumor that Vice-Principal Meads of the High School was to be given the vacant position and, with the rumor, was coupled the story that it was based on a statement of Mr. Meads himself to a pupil of his that he (Meads) would not be that pupil's teacher next year because he expected to succeed to the vacant principalship.

BUTTON ON THE SUBJECT.
Fred L. Button, chairman of the High School Committee of the Board of Education was asked today if it were true that Mr. Meads was to be appointed principal of the High School. He was also informed that the rumor was based upon a remark made by Mr. Meads himself.

"I have heard that rumor myself," said Mr. Button, "but it does not follow that it is well founded. No person will get the position who has not a majority of the Board in his favor, and there is now no such feeling on the board. Up to the present time all that the committee has done has been to report upon the inquiry which we have made regarding candidates as to their availability or otherwise."

NARROWED DOWN.
"The matter has been narrowed down to three or four candidates, and I think that before next Monday night we will be able to make a recommendation as to one man and I think the Board will be unanimous."

Mr. Button was asked if Mr. Meads' name was among the names of the "three or four" and replied:

"That I cannot say. There was, however, outside of Mr. Meads, no one to whom we seriously considered whom we did not send for and thus satisfy ourselves as to his availability or otherwise. They have appeared here, and sometimes before they were with me ten minutes I knew that they were not the proper persons for the position."

DOING POLITICS.
"Some of these, after that, have gone the rounds of members of the Board, but a person who does that shows that he is not the person whom we want for the school. Of course Mr. Meads is a man who has long been connected with the High School as a teacher and next to Mr. McChesney. He is known to us all, but I cannot say that he will be the choice."

MEADS' AGE, ETC.
Mr. Button was asked as to what Mr. Meads' age was and whether it was not the intention to get a younger man and one who had experience in the East, and replied:

"Mr. Meads is 50, over 50 years of age, but he has had a great deal of experience. Forty to 50 years is not too old. It was age which had something to do in making the change. But 50 years is not too old. Prof. Le Conte, when he was 74, told us that he had not done anything of note before he was 50 years of age, that is, if he said, he had done anything at all that was worthy of note, it was not done until he was 50 years of age."

A NEW MAN.
"And yet," continued Mr. Button, "there is a deep sentiment in the community in favor of a new man. Professor Wheeler's idea of going East, 'going East' and taking a man with education of the latest order and experience up to date has many friends. I have letters from prominent people in schools and colleges and universities all over the country, recommending people who have made a reputation. There is a bunch, some of which I have, but I cannot say any more which I know from the envelope are on high school matters—on this high school principalship. Some of the applicants have sent on photographs and some have sent books and works of theirs and some of these books are right here. As soon as we decided that a person was out of the race or was not available, we returned to him what he had sent on. There was no use in keeping him in suspense. We thanked him for his kindness in aiding us in our work."

AS TO INDISCRETION.
Mr. Button was asked whether Mr. Meads had not been indiscreet in stating that he was to succeed Mr. McChesney, if he had not had an assurance of that fact, and replied:

"Of course it may have been indiscreet, but you know, it would not be the first time that indiscreet things have been said."

"I assure you, however, when it is decided who is to be the principal, that on the morning of that day you will be told who he is, where he was born, where he went to Sunday school and everything about him."

BOY IS ACCUSED OF STEALING WIRE.

Tony Bitley, a youth about 15 years of age, was arrested today by Deputy Sheriff Taylor on a charge of petty larceny. He is accused of having assisted John Scott and Manuel Cabral in stealing copper wire from the Oakland Transit.

WILL CHANGE
NILES ROADS.

Agreement Reached Whereby
Many Accidents May be Averted.

The changes in the Niles railroad yards and the proposed new county roads will soon be accomplished, an agreement having been reached by the citizens and representatives of the Spring Valley and Southern Pacific Companies.

The companies have agreed to the opening of a road along the south side of the railroad embankment from a point opposite the school house to Snyder's corner. From the schoolhouse the road will proceed under the San Jose branch of the "Y" railroad and thence into the present roadway. It is then proposed to open a new wagon road along the western and northern lines of the Congregational Church property to the rear of that lot, and thence easterly over the property of the Spring Valley Company to the county road into Niles Canyon. It is planned to have a 100-foot road in front of Snyder's and to narrow it to 50 feet at the tunnel beneath the railroad tracks. The tunnel will be sixteen feet high, and the new wagon road will have a two per cent grade to the post-office. The Supervisors will then be asked to declare abandoned the two present county roads, one along the main line and the other along the San Jose branch. The necessary papers are now being drawn by the railroad lawyers.

The citizens feel jubilant over the proposed change, and the railroad people say they will cheerfully bear the extra expense of tunnels to avoid accidents and interference with trains.

Among the plans for the railroad yard changes are those which provide for the removal of the station and waiting room to where the freight house now stands. The latter will be moved further west and out toward "Front" street. The new freight track will be located where the turntable now is. The water tank will be moved back and a new grass plot will take the place of the present driveway at the east end of the depot. The approach to the depot will be from Front street.

A movement is now on foot to secure the removal of the steel bridge to the opposite side of the railroad tracks, thereby saving the crossing in front of the Ellisworth property. It is estimated that this could be done for $1,500, and the county road would then be straight from Thane's corner to the postoffice.

WILL TELL WOMEN
HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

Mrs. Eugenia Castleman Campbell will appear at Hamilton Hall next Friday evening and again at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and will lecture to women only on "Health, Grace and Beauty." Mrs. Campbell is a recognized expert on such subjects and it is expected that she will be greeted by a large crowd of women who wish to reap the benefit of her years of study. Her fame as a "beauty doctor" is of national extent. She is herself beautiful in face and form and guarantees that, if they will follow her instructions, women need not be either plain or unattractive.

The lecture or reception, as Mrs. Campbell terms it, is given in the interests of science, and she promises to give an ocular demonstration of a number of her most wonderful discoveries. Mrs. Campbell requests that women take their notebooks and pencils with them.

TOOK RAT POISON AND NEARLY DIED.

After threatening to kill his father, Alexander Dugan, of 372 Twelfth street, swallowed a dose of rat poison last evening, and then informed the police of his rash act. He was promptly removed to the Receiving Hospital where Steward Borchert and Warden Page applied the stomach pump with the result of saving the young man's life. Dugan, who is 22 years old, stated afterward that he had been addicted to the excessive use of strong liquor and he was unable to break the habit, he concluded to end his life.

TOM WILLIAMS IS FOREMOST.

Noted Racetrack Judge Gives His Opinion of the President of the Jockey Club.

Judge Murphy, who was so popular at the Oakland race track, is now in St. Louis. In an interview in that city he said:

"This has been rather an eventful winter both here and in California, but I am sure that the results will be beneficial in the long run. The California fight was remarkable in many ways. The contest was a battle of millions on both sides. It represented Tom Williams, who has a fat for racing, on one side, and the Crocker, forced into racing to protect valuable investments, on the other. The result was inevitable."

"Williams is one of the foremost figures in American racing today, and the sport in California could not be in better hands."

"As a matter of fact, San Francisco is the most remarkable racing center in the world. With but little over half the size of St. Louis, it can support six months of racing in regular style. Its public is the fairest and most reasonable in America. The racing was of a high class throughout. This is due to the fact that the leading jockeys of the world make their headquarters in San Francisco during the winter. A field of bad horses piloted by crack riders make an interesting contest."

"Advance Guard, Eddie Jones and Waring were the best of the older division of horses. The latter two, unfortunately, were crippled. Eddie Jones is a high type of the thoroughbred. In the stake at Tanforan, in which he made a new track record, he was practically left at the post, and his performance must rank with the best of recent years."

"The citizens feel jubilant over the proposed change, and the railroad people say they will cheerfully bear the extra expense of tunnels to avoid accidents and interference with trains."

The report shows that all debts have been paid save those due attorneys and executors. These bills amount to $2,000.00; ex-Governor J. H. Eads, $100.00; Knight & McGeary, $200.00; John Garber and Bishop & Wheeler, $100.00; Wilson & Wilson, $200.00; T. G. Crothers, $100.00; J. S. Angus, $100.00; W. S. Angus, $100.00; Wm. M. Pierson, $100.00; Garrett W. McEnaney, $100.00; George E. Crothers and R. B. Mitchell, $100.00.

MILLIONS FOR
S. P. RAILROAD.

New Management Will Spend a Pile of Money on the Road.

A dispatch from Chicago says: "Between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000 is to be spent by the Southern Pacific management in the next few years with a view to placing the system in the best possible condition physically, and in equipment and facilities. The problem of bringing the road up to standard in these respects has been given to President Hays for solution and most of his time will be devoted to it."

"It was partially with a view to giving Mr. Hays every opportunity of accomplishing his task in the quickest possible time that Mr. Harriman has given the traffic of the road exclusively into the charge of Mr. Stubbs. Although the Southern Pacific in its entirety is a fine property, there are few if any great systems where there is need of such immense expenditure. Under the management of the late C. P. Huntington very little money, comparatively speaking, was expended yearly for betterments and equipment, his policy being to extend the system, accordingly, when the unprecedented era of prosperity began, the company found itself flooded with traffic hard to handle under the existing conditions. That it was successfully taken care of speaks well for the management of the road."

It is estimated that at least $20,000,000 will be set aside this year for equipment alone."

WELL-KNOWN BREWER.
HAS PASSED AWAY.

Antone Spielman, the aged brewer, a resident of this city for the past thirteen years, died last night at his home, 1179 Nineteenth street.

Death was quite sudden and unexpected. Mr. Spielman, though well along in years, seemed to be in fairly good health until a few days ago, when he was stricken with apoplexy. Dr. Akery was quickly summoned, and although every medical assistance and comfort was at hand, life extended but three days thereafter.

Deceased was a native of Bavaria. He was 80 years and 11 months old at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and one son, Henry Spielman.

The funeral is announced for tomorrow. It will take place from the family residence. The remains will be cremated at Odd Fellows' Cemetery, San Francisco.

DOUBLE BILL AT THE DEWEY IS POPULAR.

The double bill at the Dewey Theater drew out a large audience last evening, and judging by the applause that greeted them, Landers Stevens and his excellent company were thoroughly appreciated. "The First Born," which made such a hit at the theater last week, was repeated and as a curtain raiser the company presented "Lost for a Day," a clever comedy full of bright dialogue and remarkable situations. The company was even better in "The First Born" than it was last week, which is saying a great deal for the presentation.

BURGLARS SET FIRE TO A BERKELEY HOME.

BERKELEY, June 25.—While engaged in removing stored household goods from a barn at the rear of the premises of Mrs. J. H. Robertson, 1933 Delaware street, early this morning, robbers caused a fire which entailed a loss of about $1,000. Circumstances attending the blaze give plain evidence of theft and arson.

The burglars had taken out the horse and harness and two cases of packed household ware when they evidently dropped a lighted match. Frightened by the fire the thieves departed, leaving their plunder behind them.

The Marion North Berkeley, Beacon and Lorin Hose companies responded to alarms which were turned in at 12:45. They succeeded in saving the surrounding property.

The goods which were destroyed belonged to A. W. LeFurge, who has just moved here from Watsonville. A small shed upon the property of Dr. Carrie Young was burned.

The police are investigating the fire.

DEATH RATHER THAN DISGRACE.

William F. Taylor Was Short in His Accounts and Took His Life.

William F. Taylor Jr., until recently a bookkeeper with the Oakland contracting firm of Thomson & Fontaine, committed suicide yesterday at the Croftin Hotel by inhaling illuminating gas. He registered at the hotel at 9:30 P. M. as L. J. Park Jr., and was in his room at 11 P. M. by means of a rubber tube connecting the gas jet with his mouth while he lay on a couch he ended his misery. By his side was found this note:

"To the owner: Advice Colonel W. F. Taylor, 311 Front street, Memphis, Tenn. W. F. TAYLOR JR."

"Object of suicide, domestic trouble of long standing."

Taylor, who was about 35 years old, had been short in his accounts with the contracting firm to the tune of about $1,000, but no arrest had been threatened. Regarding the domestic troubles he mentions, no one knows of his having been married. He was a popular man, an enthusiastic athlete, an expert bookkeeper and withal a bon vivant. He was a graduate of the Vanderbilt University and was the heir of his parents.

A dispatch from Memphis says: "Colonel W. F. Taylor, father of the San Francisco suicide, is totally at sea as to the causes which moved the young man to self destruction. If he was married or had any sort of outstanding alliances the family had never been given a hint to that effect. He was, so far as known, a man of good habits, and of that reckless spending of money, and the father has during the past few months seen him about $80. Being a man of vast wealth and thoroughly intelligent, Colonel Taylor had never done more than mildly caution his son against the danger of extravagance and has long urged him to return home, which the wanderer had agreed to do."

"The remains are at the morgue, where an inquest will be held."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO TEACH EMPLOYEES.

An innovation has been made by the Southern Pacific Company in the method of procedure at accidents and in rendering first aid to the injured at train wrecks. General Manager Kruttschnitt says that on all the limited trains emergency cases have been placed in charge of employees who are from time to time given instructions as to the use of the contents. Employees at many stations where there are no surgeons in the immediate vicinity are also supplied with emergency cases, containing such supplies as can be used by a layman in rendering first aid to the sick or wounded.

Accompanying each case is a list of contents with printed instructions as to their use, so that employees need not forget the verbal instructions given. In addition, complete provisions have been made for prompt professional service. The road has been divided into "districts" with a doctor in charge of each.

At every station where there is one a physician and surgeon has been engaged and termed an "emergency surgeon." In case of accident they will render first aid and make the patients as comfortable as possible before having them removed to hospitals. In addition stretchers of various kinds, fully equipped in the way of blankets, are kept at regular intervals along the road.
